

ACS Webpage Priorities

1. LANDING PAGE

a. market our services

- accessibility consulting (ADA, FHA, 504/UFAS, ICC, A117.1, and local codes)
- plan review services
- inspection/certification services
- TX RAS services
- CASP services
- legal defense/expert witness services
- accessibility training (AIA, RAS, CASp, CE, policy, and etiquette)
- technical assistance
- accessible and universal design services

b. look more professional

- convey an architectural and construction aesthetic – key images:
 - images of design and construction drawings
 - images of construction sites
 - images of buildings
- emphasizing accessibility – key images:
 - individuals using mobility aids
 - accessible ramps
 - accessible lifts
 - accessible parking spaces

c. include link to a contact form* (to request services)

d. include a search bar (for keywords within the site)

2. SUB-PAGES

a. about section with team member profiles, pictures, and locations

b. accessibility consulting (general)

- further detail accessibility consulting services
- plan review services
- inspection/certification services
- project list
- contact form* (to request services)

c. TX RAS services

- further detail TX RAS services
- emphasis our “Texas office”
- link to required TDLR forms
- include a fee schedule (for smaller projects)
- link to upcoming TX RAS related accessibility training opportunities
- link to project/client list (TX specific clients/projects)
- contact form* (to request services)

d. CASp services

- further detail CASp services
- explain “qualified defendant” services
- emphasis our “California office”
- include a fee schedule (for smaller projects)
- link to upcoming CASp related accessibility training opportunities
- link to project/client list (CA specific clients/projects)
- contact form* (to request services)

e. legal defense/expert witness services

- further detail defense/expert witness services
- emphasize how we can help a business defend themselves against a complaint
- emphasize how we can help a business avoid a complaint
- emphasis how we can help attorneys as an expert witness
- offer training to business and attorneys
- contact form* (to request services)

f. accessibility training

- further detail training services
- list upcoming training opportunities
- list available self-learning training modules
- ability to log in and pay (for upcoming trainings and training modules)
- ability to register and pay for upcoming training opportunities
- ability to generate training completion certification
- contact form* (to request services)

g. technical assistance

- further detail technical assistance services
- link to blog-type posts covering accessibility related topics
- contact form* (to request services)

h. project/client list

- residential (private and public)
- hotel and hospitality
- retail and restaurants
- educational
- civic and government
- office and industrial
- entertainment (sports and music venues)

3. DREAM FUNCTIONS

a. live chat

b. *contact form

- user can select what service they are contacting ACS about
- user can enter name and preferred contact information
- user can add a special note or ask a question
- user can attach documents

c. training and certification

- ability to log in and pay (for upcoming trainings and training modules)
- ability to register and pay for upcoming training opportunities
- ability to generate training completion certification

d. *technical assistance

- ability to “ask an expert” (for a small fee)